Put the story in order

Quill line! we all said. Quill line! said Pea, a beat late. I was in charge. That is the whole story.

A

Then I saw who was in front of me.

B

I was in charge. That is the whole story. Fine. Here is the rest.

C

Pea sat down in the middle of the circle. Me too, he said. Nobody argued with that.

D

Dot came. Pea came, a beat late. Quill line! said Pea, after everyone had stopped.

E

What if, said Dot, the biggest idea goes first? That was not a rule. It is now, said Dot. I have one.

How to play

Cut out the cards. Mix them up. Read each one together, then lay them in the order you think the story goes. Then open the book and check.

The right order

Start to finish: C, E, F, B, D, A.

C. I was in charge. That is the whole story. Fine. Here is the rest. (page 3)

E. Dot came. Pea came, a beat late. Quill line! said Pea, after everyone had stopped. (page 6)

F. What if, said Dot, the biggest idea goes first? That was not a rule. It is now, said Dot. I have one. (page 10)

B. Then I saw who was in front of me. (page 16)

D. Pea sat down in the middle of the circle. Me too, he said. Nobody argued with that. (page 21)

A. Quill line! we all said. Quill line! said Pea, a beat late. I was in charge. That is the whole story. (page 27)

Ask: what happened first? What happened next? What was the last thing?
